About Excelligent

In 2018, three friends decided to create a company they would want to work for. Their vision was to provide the best candidate for each customer. If that meant finding a Unicorn, they would find them. After agreeing on their plan, finding the perfect employees, and a post on social media, Excelligent, LLC was born.

Excelligent encourages employees to be themselves and do their best in supporting their customers. They also support each other and treat one another with respect.

Excelligent hopes to be an employer of choice for employees who are ready for a change and ready to feel appreciated for the work they do.
